

LATEST MAUI NEWS AND NOTES

WAILUKU, June 29.—Mrs. George E. E. of the foreman of the Maui News, and leader of the Wailuku group, died suddenly of heart failure Tuesday evening. She was a well-known woman, and had not been ill of late. She had many friends on Maui, and will be greatly missed.

Two Stables have purchased a big White Truck, so that they can handle their heavy draying even more successfully than they have been able to in the past. They are purchasing two new automobiles which are now en route to help them in their passenger service, which has greatly increased of late.

A large number of pupils are back from school and college. Among the many arrivals this past week are: Edith Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walsh of Kahului, Garvie Rose, daughter of Paia, Edith L. Baldwin and Edith K. Keola and Cleo Case of Wailuku.

Lorain Smith, now in the employ of Von Hamm-Young Co. accompanied by Mrs. Smith came to Maui on the Mauna Kea.

Hon. Seiden B. Kinsbury is still in Lahaina on the Court work. Last Sunday he entertained a large number of his Wailuku friends, who were invited to the day.

The Wailuku Sugar Company is to give a big dance in the ware house on the 29th of July. The event is anticipated by all Maui people.

Carrie Scholtz left on Friday's Mauna Kea for the City. She will sail on the Ventura this coming week. Miss Lucy Richardson and Miss Mary Hoffman are booked on the same boat.

The Maui Library has been the fortunate recipient of some excellent edition of Life. Also the library committee has purchased the most popular recent novels.

Alfred Martineau goes to the Coast. Miss Emma Babcock, well known on Maui is the bride-to-be. It is planned that the wedding should be at the bride's home in the presence of immediate relatives.

two sons—Gordon and Donald—are with him for the summer.

Homesteaders Hopeful.

The success W. R. Patterson has had makes all the homesteaders most hopeful, and many expect to get as much land as possible cleared this summer ready for fall planting.

The Juvenile Postoffice are still on Maui. They certainly have pleased the people here immensely, and they themselves say they have had a good time on the Valley Isle, and hope to come again. Their packed houses seem to prove that Maui wants something and is willing to hear good actors all the time.

Lighting System Progresses.

The town is quickly excited over the prospect of the turning on of the electric current for Monday evening. The company has certainly been working hard. Many had hope to be able to visit the plant the first time it was operated, but the engineers in charge are all opposed to having visitors enter the building that night, for fear that something might go wrong, and then they would be blamed for the accident.

The event of Monday will be celebrated with a big dance at the Gymnasium, which has been especially decorated by the Island Electric Company for the occasion. This will be one of the big events of the year for Maui. The supplying of electric power and light will put Maui in line for doing more business and being even a better place for residence than ever before.

MUCH PROGRESS SHOWN ON MAUI

Homesteaders Are Hopeful and Getting Ready for Fall Planting

Special Correspondence, Star-Bulletin.

WAILUKU, June 29.—Earle G. Bartlett, teacher in the Kamehameha Schools has been on Maui some weeks. Mr. Parsons arrived just recently. Both are hard at work in the Pauwela Homestead. Mr. Bartlett will put in the summer and Mr. Parsons intends to make his future home. The families of these two gentlemen are in Honolulu, but Mr. Parsons expects to bring his wife and baby to Maui soon. They will build a house this summer which will be for the Parsons family, and later, Mr. Bartlett may build too.

Stanley Livingston has also taken up land, and has been over to Maui lately reconnoitering. He is enthusiastic and expects to settle into his piece some time next year.

E. Merrick Brown is working hard on his piece. He had hard luck with a runaway team not long ago, but he has made up for the accident, and has a big piece ready for planting. His

MAUI IS MAKING GREAT PLANS FOR 4TH

Special Correspondence, Star-Bulletin.

WAILUKU, June 29.—Maui is certainly making a try for the biggest Fourth of July celebrated in her history. The entries closed last night, and from what the books show, it looks as if Maui would have an all-day race at Spreckels Park. To the surprise of many, the very best of the Hilo horses are coming. This seems to prove without a doubt that Maui is putting it all over the Hiloites this Fourth, and that the Middle Isle is entitled to the name as being the best in the line of sportsmanship. All who enjoy clean sport will be here to see what's doing.

An All-Maui baseball team will meet the Honolulu team. The game will be played on the Wailuku grounds on the third of July. The Maui team is a picked team, and there is good material here for selection. The names of Myers, Dunn, Robinson and Bal are all on the slate. It is now rather expected that the races will be over in time so that the people can see the baseball games in the afternoon. There is a big race day ahead, and announcement of the sports following will be made at the racing track.

AN OPEN SECRET.

Many ask the reason for the continuing and increasing demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The secret is that it never fails to give relief. The middle-aged men of today remember it as the remedy given them by their mothers for cramp colic and dysentery when they were children and its reputation as a positive cure for such ailments is still maintained. No remedy has ever been produced that is its equal for the prompt relief of pain. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

Cable News HUNDREDS KILLED BY TORNADO

REGINA, Saskatchewan, June 29.—Four hundred persons are reported to have been killed and an estimated total damage of $10,000,000 was done here this afternoon by a tornado, which is the worst that has ever struck the Canadian Northwest.

A pitiful feature in connection with the awful catastrophe in that the city was gaily decorated in honor of the celebration of Dominion Day and the storm swept down upon the hundreds who were here to attend the festivities.

Without any warning the tornado smote the city with a wind that at times reached the rate of about 100 miles an hour. It moved down buildings in a clean swath for distance of six blocks through the central business and residence portion of the city. Practically nothing in its path escaped its fury. Hundreds of residences, including some of the oldest and finest in the city, were leveled in an instant. Homes of the richest and poorest citizens alike fell in the wake of the storm's fury.

Three of the finest churches of the city were wrecked and many persons who had just left the edifices after the usual Sunday services had narrow escapes from death from the flying debris.

Several business houses were wrecked, some only partially, but many completely. Six grain elevators were demolished and innumerable small frame buildings were carried along in the wind like kindling wood. The storm also devastated the retail district and badly damaged the new parliament building which had only recently been completed at a great cost. It was one of the finest structures in the city.

The telephone building was badly demolished and scores of telephone operators who were at the switchboard when the storm struck the city hastened from the building. So far as can be ascertained this morning, all escaped serious injury.

Many automobiles which were on streets were picked up bodily and carried along for several blocks. Every vehicle has been pressed into service to remove the dead to temporary morgues. The hospitals are filled with the injured and many sufferers are being cared for by friends.

Six hundred families have been made homeless and the scene of devastation is pitiable. It will be several days before the exact total monetary loss will be known.

After passing over this city the storm swept on to the northwest through Saskatchewan, leaving a trail of death, homeless sufferers and wrecked homes in its path of destruction.

FIGHT TO DRAW.

JUAREZ, Mexico, June 30.—Frank Morrow and Jack Herrick fought twenty rounds here today to a draw. The contest which proved a hard battle was pulled off in the bull ring. Herrick came here several weeks ago from Los Angeles and because of his victories in two other fights here has become a favorite with the fight fans here and in El Paso, across the border.

SAILORS STRIKE FOR INCREASED WAGES

NEW YORK, June 30.—More than eight thousand sailors, oilers and firemen, employed by the transatlantic lines went out on strike yesterday afternoon. The men declare that the companies have promised them an increase of pay but that so far no steps have been taken to keep that promise. They also assert that the recognition of the unions was pledged and that this also has been ignored.

CLARK'S STAND IS SLIPPING

BALTIMORE, Maryland, June 30.—After a desperate struggle in which Woodrow Wilson's strength increased gradually until his vote nearly equaled that of the Speaker of the house, the convention adjourned late last night until tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock, without having been able to reach any decision in the fight for the presidential candidate.

In all twenty-six ballots were taken in the vote at the last standing: Clark, 46½; Wilson, 40½; Underwood, 11½; Harmon, 29; Marshall, 20; Bryan, 1; Foss, 43. This showed the distinct gain made by Wilson during the latter part of the fight and his followers went to their beds tired but exultant, and declaring that he would undoubtedly win out in the struggle Monday.

It certainly looks as though the deadlock is breaking. The twentieth ballot gave Clark 512 to Wilson 388, and the twenty-first ballot gave him 508 to Wilson's 395.

BALTIMORE, Maryland, June 30.—The recess from their labors seems to have revived the delegates to the Democratic national convention and last night both Speaker Clark and William J. Bryan made statements, which excited much comment from the Bourbons here. Clark declared that he would keep on fighting until nominated, and Bryan said that the Missouri is right at heart but misled.

The statements were practically the only feature of a day spent for the most part in rest after the strenuous labors of Friday and Saturday. Many of the delegates are so hoarse that they cannot speak above a whisper, and others are almost prostrated by the excessive heat of the last few days. The convention will open at eleven o'clock tomorrow morning with an utterly weary crowd of candidate selectors, most of whom will be only too glad to see the last of this struggle.

The question of the swing to Clark or Wilson was discussed freely during the day but no one seemed able to reach any definite conclusion, although there were not lacking rumors that Underwood would throw his force to Clark on the first ballot. It was freely predicted that the fight would be finished early in the morning, but there seems no good grounds for such a belief, as there are no signs of wavering on the part of any of the delegations.

Just before leaving here for Washington, late this evening, Champ Clark issued a statement in which he said: "I came here to answer charges made regarding my connection with certain interests. I have not had an opportunity to do so upon the floor of the convention, but none the less my trip has been satisfactory. I am in this light to stay, and I will keep right on fighting until I get the nomination."

CLEAN-UP COMMITTEE THANKS THE PUBLIC

At a meeting of the Carriage Committee, of the 1912 Cleanup Day Campaign, it was unanimously resolved that a public expression of thanks and appreciation be made by this Committee for generous spirit of co-operation manifested very generally by owners of teams and conveyances which enabled it to carry greatly reduced the cost of handling the great quantities of refuse which had to be moved.

The total expenditures of this committee amounted to but $237. A large number of wagons, carts and drays, together with drivers, were freely placed at the disposal of the Committee, and used to great advantage. All nationalities were represented in this and the Committee cordially thanks all who thus assisted them.
